MEMORANDUM FOR USERS OF OMB CIRCULAR NO. A-11

FROM: Art Stigile
Chief, Budget Concepts Branch

SUBJECT: Revisions to OMB Circular No. A-11 dated June 2006

We have updated the electronic version of OMB Circular No. A-11 to reflect several changes and clarifications. The updated circular is available at the following Internet address:

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/circulars/index.html>

The revised guidance:

- Requires agencies to include information on the expected benefits from the President's E-Government initiatives and the associated funding levels for fiscal years 2007 and 2008 in their congressional budget justifications (section 22.6).
- Modifies the line coding for spending authority from offsetting collection entries in MAX schedule X to match the coding for other types of budget authority (exhibits 81A and 81B).
- Clarifies instructions on how to fill out the program reporting categories worksheet (sections 121.2 and 121.7).
- Changes MAX data requirements for credit programs and implements cross-account edit checks (section 185).
- Provides updated MAX edit checks (Appendix D).

Paper copies of the revised sections will not be issued.
