Dear Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs Hunt:

This Administration has shown very clearly the extent to which it is willing to prostitute the moral foundation of this country to pay back the corrupt pimps of the pollution industry that led a coup and stole the election of 2000. We've sacrificed innocent lives and the financial future of our economy by going to war. Now the "price tag" of a senior's life is devalued for the the immoral justification of dismantling public health protections!

Shame on the White House Office of Management and Budget and the Environmental Protection Agency! Who in our government is providing moral leadership? When will this insanity stop?

Charles Fletcher
Boulder, CO

Sincerely,

Charles Fletcher
