Dear Ms. Hunt:

I am writing to urge that you not move forward with your guidance on cost-benefit analysis (known as the OMB Draft Guidelines for the Conduct of Regulatory Analysis and the Format of Accounting Statements). Surely, as a matter of principle, one life should not be valued more than another. In addition, I am very concerned that this analysis could water down anti-pollution regulations and harm the health of senior citizens.

I hope you will not encourage this unfair and health threatening direction.

Sincerely,

Sandra Mardigian
