Subject: Comments Regarding Federal Regulations Including Federal Regulations Affecting S

This is for the President:

Since you have been providing and speaking about tax relief and reimbursing taxes to us, why is social security income taxed? Since we have already paid taxes on the funds that we contributed to social security, why are we taxed when we become senior citizens and receive social security payments? Isn't this double taxation? Didn't our forefathers revolt against the King of England because of double taxation? Now, I'm not suggesting that the elderly revolt against the US government. But, why require the elderly pay this extra tax when they would be able to put more money back into circulation and thus improve the economy?
