WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET DIRECTOR
JOSHUA B. BOLTEN TO VISIT HARLEY-DAVIDSON
VECHICLE OPERATIONS PLANT IN YORK, PENNSYLVANIA

On Friday, May 21, at 9:15 a.m., Joshua B. Bolten, Director of the White House Office of Management and Budget and a member of the President's Cabinet, will join U.S. Representative Todd Platts (PA-19) for a visit to the Harley-Davidson Vehicle Operations Plant in York, PA. The event will highlight President George W. Bush's pro-growth economic policies which have laid the foundation for the creation of 1.1 million new jobs since August. The plant tour will be followed by a media availability.

Both the tour and the media availability will be opened to credentialed media only. Space for the tour may be limited, so reporters wishing to cover the tour or arrange for one-on-one interviews should call Pat Sweeney at Harley-Davidson at 717-852-6541 in advance.
