FULL PERFORMANCE LEVEL: GS-15

MORE THAN ONE POSITION MAY BE FILLED THROUGH THIS ANNOUNCEMENT.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Status Candidates Only.

PLEASE NOTE: To ensure safe and timely receipt of your application, we encourage applicants to submit an electronic application to EOPJOBS@OA.EOP.GOV or fax it to (202)395-1194/1262.

DUTIES: The person occupying this position participates in a variety of analytical and technical functions related to the preparation, execution, and analysis of the President's budget as well as activities related to the monitoring and analysis of congressional action on the President's budget requests and consideration of various budget process-related issues. The person will interact with numerous proprietary budget databases, as well as Access. In addition, significant experience in creating graphs/charts and electronic slideshow presentations is required.

Generally, the work encompasses problem identification and resolution, compilation and analysis of program and budgetary information gathered from a variety of sources; technical and substantive review of budgetary data, appropriations language and related congressional reports, and other information; preparation of adhoc budget analyses; development of graphs, various slideshow presentations, tables, reports, letters, memoranda, and the like; liaison functions within and outside of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB); representation of Branch work at varying levels of government; and a variety of data/information tasks associated with budget analysis.

Examples of specific work assignments include:

- Monitoring congressional action on appropriations bills. The employee serves as the focal point for preparation and dissemination of information concerning the Administration's position on appropriations action taken by the Congress. Attends congressional mark-up sessions; conducts liaison activities with staff of the Appropriations Committees and Congressional Budget Office; maintains electronic data supporting the appropriations monitoring process; prepares letters to congressional leadership, Statements of Administration Policy, and various supporting materials for use by OMB policy officials and the White House in conducting negotiations with the Congress on appropriations matters.

- Creating new and innovative ways of approaching tasks. An employee is encouraged to develop new procedures, and/or guidelines, which improves any aspect of the task at hand. Examples may include quality, time efficiency, organization, and data collection.
- Contributing to preparation of the President's budget. Working with other staff of the division, coordinates the development of the database that supports the President's annual budget and contributes to the preparation of the Budget Appendix and other portions of the budget documents. Creates a schedule which keeps facets of the process moving in a timely manner. Reviews agency budget submissions for technical and conceptual accuracy and consistency; works with OMB Resource Management Offices to resolve problems encountered; ensures that milestones in the budget preparation process are met and that both the budget documents and the database supporting them are of high technical quality.
- Preparing complex budgetary graphs and charts, often under high-pressure situations and very short deadlines, using a variety of software such as Freelance Graphics, PowerPoint, Corel Presentations, and Excel. This requires working with staff and policy officials to develop and display effectively the required data. Strong communication and organization skills are essential. In addition, working with OMB Resource Management Offices, and other staff of the division, coordinates the development of all graphical content for inclusion in the President's Budget and other budget documents.
- Preparing recurring and ad hoc analytical reports that compile data and other information and analyze its implications in order to produce reports for the use of OMB and White House leadership. The subject matter of the analysis may concern a wide variety of budgetary topics such as: (1) development of alternative budget paths; (2) assessing the effect of budgetary proposals on the discretionary spending targets; and (3) preparing comparisons of OMB and CBO scoring of legislation.
- Analyzing budgetary issues. Working independently or, more typically, as part of a work group, the employee exercises reasoning skills in considering various conceptual, technical, and procedural issues related to the budget process (e.g., implications of the absence of appropriations, refinement of computer system applications to accommodate evolving technical budgeting requirements.) The result of these efforts may include: (1) development of letters, papers, and/or tables on various budgetary technical or conceptual issues which could be shared with the Congressional Budget Office, the House and Senate Budget Committees, and the Appropriations Committees; and (2) development of guidance for OMB leadership and Resource Management Offices and other Federal agencies.
- Preparing supplemental funding requests, amended budget requests, and rescission proposals for transmittal to the Congress. Working either independently, or as part of a team, the employee works with the Resource Management Offices and the General Counsel to ensure that the Administration's policy is reflected correctly.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants must have a minimum of one year of specialized experience at a level of difficulty and responsibility comparable to the next lower grade in the Federal service. Specialized experience is experience directly related to the work of the position to be filled, which has equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to successfully perform the duties of the position. NOTE: This announcement contains Selective Factors that are considered a basic requirement of the position. Applicants who do not meet these factors WILL NOT receive further consideration.

SELECTIVE FACTORS: Candidates should prepare, using specific examples, a brief description of their qualifications as they relate to each of the selective factors listed below. Failure to address these factors WILL result in a rating of INELIGIBLE. Candidates who do not meet these factors are ineligible for this position.

1. Skill in designing, implementing, and working with advanced data collection methods and utilizing applications (e.g., Excel, Access, Freelance Graphics, and Corel Presentations) for the compilation, qualitative evaluation, and graphical presentation of data. Therefore, expert knowledge of multiple applications is required, including Freelance Graphics, Corel Presentations, and PowerPoint, as well as Excel.
2. Skill in working with OMB processes, policies, and procedures used in preparing and analyzing the Federal budget and preparing supplemental funding requests, amended budget requests, and rescission proposals; as well as knowledge of the relationship of the Federal budget to the congressional budget process and tracking legislation through the various stages of congressional action.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS: Candidates must prepare, using specific examples, a brief description of their qualifications as they relate to each of the quality ranking factors listed below. Each candidate who meets the minimum qualifications and the Selective Factors listed above, will be rated and ranked based on their responses to the Quality Ranking Factors listed below. Failure to address these factors WILL result in a rating of INELIGIBLE.

1. Ability to apply reasoning skills effectively to complex problems and to work independently towards defensible solutions or recommendations.
2. Ability to summarize and analyze large amounts of complex information and data, to spot trends in material being reviewed, and to present quantitative and/or qualitative information in a clear, concise fashion.
3. Ability to work well independently or in team settings and to adapt effectively to rapidly shifting priorities and high-pressure situations.
4. Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing. (Applicants should submit one BRIEF writing sample no more than 5 pages.)

BASIS OF RATING: Applicants will be rated based on an evaluation of their experience/education as described in the application AND on their responses to the Selective and Quality Ranking Factors listed above. APPLICANTS SHOULD ADDRESS EACH SELECTIVE FACTOR AND EACH QUALITY RANKING FACTOR SEPARATELY ON PLAIN PAPER.

STATUS APPLICANTS: Current Federal employees serving under permanent appointments in the competitive service, or former Federal employees with reinstatement eligibility, will be considered under the agency's Merit Promotion procedures.

NOTE: Applicants who do not indicate their lowest acceptable grade/salary will be considered only at the highest grade for which they qualify. For example, if you qualify at the GS-11 level, and you have not indicated that you would accept a lower grade, you will be only considered at the GS-11 level.
