FULL PERFORMANCE LEVEL: GS-15

MORE THAN ONE POSITION MAY BE FILLED THROUGH THIS ANNOUNCEMENT.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Open to All Sources.

*NOTICE: Please note the Selective Placement and Quality Ranking Factors listed in this vacancy announcement. Failure to address these factors will result in you not receiving consideration for this vacancy.

PLEASE NOTE: To ensure safe and timely receipt of your application, we encourage applicants to submit an electronic application to EOPJOBS@OA.EOP.GOV or fax it to (202)395-1194/1262. We cannot guarantee that applications mailed will be received by the closing date of this announcement.

DUTIES: Serves as a Policy Analyst within the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) of the Office of Management and Budget. Analysts oversee regulations, collections of information, and policies in the areas of environment, natural resources, agriculture, rural development, energy, labor, education, immigration, health, welfare, housing, finance, criminal justice, information technology, and other related domestic policy issues.

The Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs is responsible for overseeing the Federal regulatory system so that agencies' regulatory actions are consistent with applicable law, the President's priorities, and the principles set forth in Executive Order 12866, "Regulatory Planning and Review". OIRA also is responsible under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 for reviewing requests by agencies for approval of collections of information (including surveys, program evaluations, and applications for benefits). In addition, OIRA staff reviews and analyzes other Administration and Congressional policy initiatives.

The incumbent is expected to: (1) oversee and evaluate the regulatory, information policies, and other policy initiatives of one or more government agencies, applying economics, statistics, and other quantitative methods; (2) analyze agency regulations prior to publication to ensure that the regulations adhere to the principles set forth in Presidential Executive Order 12866; (3) review and approve agency collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995; (4) coordinate the review of regulations and collections of information within OMB and the Executive Office of the President, as well as among other relevant Federal agencies; (5) monitor and analyze legislative and policy proposals and testimony for conformance with the policies and priorities of the President; (6) initiate significant reform initiatives to improve the functioning of the government as it relates to regulations and collections of information; and (7) perform special analyses and advise senior policy officials on specific issues.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants must have a minimum of one year of specialized experience at a level of difficulty and responsibility comparable to the next lower grade in the Federal service. Specialized experience is experience directly related to the work of the position to be filled, which has equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to successfully perform the duties of the position. NOTE: This announcement contains Selective Placement Factors that are considered a basic requirement of the position. Applicants who do not meet these factors WILL NOT receive further consideration.

NOTE: EMPLOYEES MUST MEET ALL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS PRIOR TO DATE OF APPOINTMENT.

SUBSTITUTION OF EDUCATION FOR EXPERIENCE:

For GS-09: 2 years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to a master's degree or equivalent graduate degree at an accredited college or university.

For GS-11: 3 years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to a PhD or equivalent doctoral degree from an accredited college or university.

If graduate education is substituted for the required specialized experience, it must demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to perform the duties of this position. Equivalent combinations of education and specialized experience may be qualifying.

SELECTIVE PLACEMENT FACTORS: Candidates should prepare, using specific examples, a brief description of their qualifications as they relate to each of the selective placement factors listed below. Failure to address these factors WILL result in a rating of INELIGIBLE. Candidates who do not meet these factors are ineligible for this position.

1. Advanced academic training (graduate level) or practical experience in public policy or economic analysis, in one or more of the following areas: environment, natural resources, agriculture, rural development, energy, labor, education, immigration, health, welfare, housing, finance, criminal justice, information technology, and other related domestic policy issues.
2. Advanced academic training (graduate level) or practical experience demonstrating an ability to analyze and summarize the effects of complex government programs and policy issues using economics, cost-benefit-analysis, econometrics, statistics, or other quantitative methodologies.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS: Candidates must prepare, using specific examples, a brief description of their qualifications as they relate to each of the quality ranking factors listed below. Each candidate who meets the minimum qualifications and the Selective Placement Factors listed above, will be rated and ranked based on their responses to the Quality Ranking Factors listed below. Failure to address these factors WILL result in a rating of INELIGIBLE.

1. Academic training or practical experience demonstrating superior analytic ability and sound judgment in evaluating the consequences of public policies, using quantitative analytical methods such as benefit-cost analysis, microeconomics, statistics, and risk assessment.

2. Academic training or practical experience in evaluating and analyzing domestic policy issues in one or more of the following areas: environment, natural resources, agriculture, rural development, energy, labor, education, immigration, health, welfare, housing, finance, criminal justice, information technology, and other related domestic policy issues.
3. Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing. (Applicants should submit one BRIEF writing sample no more than 10 pages in length.)
4. Demonstrated ability to work independently and organize work in the face of rapidly shifting priorities and high-pressure situations.

BASIS OF RATING: No written test is required. Applicants will be rated based on an evaluation of their experience/education as described in the application AND on their responses to the Selective Placement and Quality Ranking Factors listed above. APPLICANTS SHOULD ADDRESS EACH SELECTIVE PLACEMENT FACTOR AND EACH QUALITY RANKING FACTOR SEPARATELY ON PLAIN PAPER.

STATUS APPLICANTS: Current Federal employees serving under permanent appointments in the competitive service, or former Federal employees with reinstatement eligibility, will be considered under the component's Merit Promotion procedures. Those status applicants who want to receive consideration under the competitive delegated authority procedures of this announcement must submit two applications. Mark one application "Merit Promotion" and the other "Delegated Examining."

NOTE: Applicants who do not indicate their lowest acceptable grade/salary will be considered only at the highest grade for which they qualify. For example, if you qualify at the GS-11 level, and you have not indicated that you would accept a lower grade, you will be only considered at the GS-11 level.
