DUTIES: Under the general direction of the Administrator for Federal Procurement Policy, the incumbent is responsible for developing and implementing a wide variety of initiatives to ensure that the federal government's acquisition workforce is adequately trained and developed to support the government's current and future mission needs. The acquisition workforce includes all GS-1102s, those performing similar functions, and all positions that have significant acquisition-related duties, such as program and project managers, Contracting Officers Technical Representatives, and many others. The duties of the Associate Administrator for Acquisition Workforce Programs involve, but are not limited to, providing overall policy direction to the Federal Acquisition Institute (FAI), supervising the acquisition workforce training fund, developing a strategic human capital plan for the acquisition workforce, reviewing and providing input to individual agency acquisition workforce succession plans, recommending to the Administrator and other senior officials appropriate programs, policies, and practices to increase the quantity and quality of the Federal acquisition workforce, and other duties as necessary to support the acquisition workforce. The competencies are: Interpersonal Skills; Oral Communication; Continual Learning; Written Communication; Integrity/Honesty; and Public Service Motivation.

If you do not submit a separate statement addressing these qualifications, you will not receive consideration for the position.
